Trip to France

From 12 to 15 April 2016 the classes 3C and 3I went to a trip in France.

With our teachers, Mr Gallucci, Mrs Cerutti, Mrs Conti and Mrs Alberione, we visited a lot of beautiful cities and interesting places (like museums, castles...).

The travels from a city to another, always by coach, were long and sometimes boring, but it worth it because we had the chance to live amazing and new emotions that we will always keep inside our hearts.

We ate in front of the sea, we visited the Picasso museum, we slept in Arles, we walked in the streets where Vincent Van Gogh has been before us, we admired breathtaking view, we smelt lavender everywhere, we lived unrepeatable experiences.

We went to Antibes, Arles, Aigues-Mortes, Sainte Marie de la Mer, Les Beaux de Provence, Saint Remy de Provence, le Pont du Gard and Aix-en-Provence.

They are all amazing cities and I'm glad that we've visited all of them.

I think all the classes, on their last year, should do a trip like this, because these are the experiences we will remember forever. They are also very interesting and funny I would repeat this trip again.

We meet new people from other classes that we didn't know very well and it was also a chance to stay with our friends, have fun and learn something new every day.

Les Baux de Provence

On April 12th 2016, my class, my teachers Gallucci, Cerutti, Conti and I went to France in Provence.

We carried out many activities, but since I do not want to bore you, I will not list them. So I will tell you about the visit that I liked most, the one to the village of Les Baux de Provence, considered one of the most beautiful villages in France.

This place situated on a mountain, from where you can admire a wonderful view.

The teachers told us that we could make a free visit to the village so I, with a group of schoolmates, went up to the highest point: the ruins of the medieval castle.

Up there the landscape was really breathtaking as the castle dominates over the fields, the crops, the trees, the white rocks, the villages.

I confess we spent a lot of time taking pictures, trying to record all that beauty.

To me that was the most exciting moment of the tour and I will always remember it with pleasure.
